

Remarks:

The amendment for this application, filed on November 9, 2007, listed a status identifier for claim 110 as: PREVIOUSLY ADDED. However, in the amendment, there was a minor correction in claim 110, where the phrase: "The method of Claim 108" was changed to: "The method of Claim 109". Since there was a strike out and replacement, the claim should have had a status identifier of: CURRENTLY AMENDED. Here, the status identifier for claim 110 has been properly listed as: CURRENTLY AMENDED.

The applicant wishes to apologize for the error in the amendment for this application, filed on November 9, 2007. This was a simple clerical error, and not a deliberate misstatement. The applicant wishes to thank the examiner for the effort to date. The applicant submits that the specification and claims are now in proper form, and hopes that this amendment places the claims in a form for allowance.

Very Respectfully,
